

SELF-STUDY REPORT PAPER REVIEWER

---

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Current or experienced program director, faculty member, clinical laboratory professional, physician or dean with knowledge of the clinical laboratory sciences.
- Current or prior association with a NAACLS accredited program.
- Currently licensed and/or credentialed and in good standing with the licensing/accrediting body, as appropriate.
- Education plus experience in curriculum design and teaching techniques.
- Familiarity with NAACLS' Standards.
- Familiarity with current practices in:
  - A. Clinical laboratory procedures.
  - B. Staffing, space, equipment, budgeting for clinical services and educational purposes.
  - C. Health professions education.
- Familiarity with the purposes of accreditation.
- Capacity for making objective assessments.
- Ability to meet deadlines.
- Ability to respect and maintain confidentiality of privileged information.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Paper Reviewers
1. Read the program's Self-Study Report in the context of the Standards, analyzing the quantitative information provided.
2. Complete the Paper Review Check List according to standard protocol for content and format.
3. Submit the Paper Review according to established timelines.

TIME REQUIRED:

The times provided below represent estimates for completion of the tasks listed.

Activity	Estimated Time
Reading Self-Study Reports	4-5 hours
Organizing material	3 hours
Drafting Paper Review	3 hours
Typing Paper Review	Varies